

*Eileen Falkenberg-Hull
for The AJC*

8 babymoon destinations that don't require a passport

© 6:19 p.m. Monday, Sept. 7, 2015 | Filed in: Lifestyle

The Westin Kierland Resort and Spa

The Westin Kierland Resort and Spa

Are you expecting a family expansion? Hotels and resorts across the United States are offering babymoon packages perfectly designed to accommodate a growing family.

Ritz Carlton, Half Moon Bay — Just minutes from San Francisco but out of the hustle and bustle of the city, Half Moon Bay gives travelers access to the peaceful California coast. Their babymoon package starts at $825 per night and includes breakfast for two, a 60-minute pregnancy massage, coastal view rooms, sparkling cider and more. (Half Moon Bay, California)

Kiawah Island Golf Resort — Enjoy luxurious garden views in a room that includes a king-size bed, starting at $316 per night. Additional package features include a buffet breakfast for two daily, one 60-minute massage per person, dinner for two at Jasmine Porch and more. (Kiawah Island, South Carolina)

Four Seasons Resort, Rancho Encantado Santa Fe — Relax and rejuvenate during your pregnancy at the Four Seasons. Mothers-to-be can indulge in a massage, prenatal yoga class, snacks from a chef-curated "cravings menu" and more as part of the resort's babymoon package. (Santa Fe, New Mexico)

Westin Kierland Resort and Spa — Head to Scottsdale, Arizona, for a refreshing take on the babymoon experience. The resort's package includes an organic skin care gift set, a make your own ice cream sundae bar delivered straight to your room, the in-room movie of your choice, a couples massage featuring one customized mother-to-be experience, 24-hour "cravings chef" service and more. Rates vary by dates of stay. (Scottsdale, Arizona)

Ritz Carlton, Amelia Island — Starting at $449 per night with a minimum two-night stay, expectant parents can take advantage of the Ritz Carlton's babymoon package, which includes a customized mommy-to-be massage, facials, nail services or a $150 spa credit, breakfast each morning, $100 food and beverage credit, a "mama mio" gift, and more. (Fernandina Beach, Florida)

Salish Lodge & Spa — Don't want to commit to a long babymoon? Salish Lodge & Spa offers a one-night package that includes rose petals and sparkling cider in your room upon arrival, a special pregnancy pillow for the mother-to-be, two 50-minute Salish signature spa treatments, a $50 dining credit, Salish Spa & Lodge baby gift, and more. (Snoqualmie, Washington)

Buttermilk Falls Inn & Spa — Feel like you've left the real world behind when you indulge in the offerings of this country chic getaway. The special babymoon package features a two-night stay in any room, a 60-minute prenatal massage, detoxifying wrap for your partner, poolside lunch for two and a special gift. (Milton, New York)

Island Cottage Oceanfront Inn — The inn's "precious moments babymoon package" includes elements aimed to make your stay as peaceful as possible. For $599 plus the cost of your room, babymooners get flowers in their room at arrival, the inn's signature baby shower in a basket to take home, 80-minute prenatal spa service, non-alcoholic cocktail and cheese tray service on arrival, the use of beach chairs, bicycles, beach umbrellas and beach towels at no charge, and more. (Flagler Beach, Florida)