

SEATTLE'S RELATIONSHIP WITH COMCAST: IT'S COMPLICATED

seattle

SMART. SAVVY. ESSENTIAL.

KNUTE BERGER
ON PLAYING NICE WITH NEIGHBORING CITIES
page 80

BREAKFAST & LUNCH UNDER $10!
DINNER UNDER $15!

CHEAP EATS

PLUS Healthy Choices and 13 Best Savory Soups

DESIGN IDEAS FOR A SERENE HOME
page 60

+
HOW FOREIGN INVESTMENT IS CHANGING OUR NEIGHBORHOODS

MOONSHINE GOES LEGIT

SPECIAL ADVERTISING SECTION:
FIVE STAR MORTGAGE PROFESSIONALS
(see page 115)

JANUARY 2015
$4.99US $5.99CAN
0 70989 34272 9 01>
SEATTLEMAG.COM

The new Hidden Terrace at Salish Lodge offers massage and yoga overlooking the falls

ROAD TRIP!

WHERE: SALISH LODGE AND SPA seated at the edge of Snoqualmie Falls (6501 Railroad Ave., Snoqualmie; 425.888.2556; salishlodge.com. $199-$339).

WHY: Start the new year off right with a mountain retreat minus the white-knuckle stress of driving over a snowy mountain pass. And Twin Peaks fans will want to celebrate the news that the iconic TV series—which was set at the lodge and the falls—will return with new episodes.

WHAT: After checking in and checking out your room (be sure to request riverside quarters), sign up for Yoga by the Falls (Vinyasa Flow or Gentle Yoga classes, $25/person) in the new Hidden Terrace room, featuring floor-to-ceiling views of the water crashing over the rocks.

RELAX: Head to the spa for one of four New Year-inspired treatments (20 percent discount for yoga participants), such as the Bubbly Body Scrub, a Champagne-infused salt scrub with a full body massage.

GET BUZZED: The property features an apiary with 12 busy beehives, so be sure to try the new honey cider ($19.95), made with Salish Lodge honey by winemakers at Treveri Cellars.

KIMBERLY DOWNING

AD TRIP: SALISH
GLER: AMAZON; NBBJ;
I SKY