

Eastside Mother's Day Guide

Looking for something fun to do with the mother in your life this Sunday? We've got you covered, whether your mom loves brunch, dinner, spa treatments, flowers, or music, there's something in this guide for everyone.

Eats and Treats

Mother's Day Tasting Experience at Chateau Ste Michelle

Wine specialists will be serving up world-class wines, cheeses, and chocolates — all expertly paired — at 12:30 p.m., 2 p.m., and 3:30 p.m., on May 12 and 13 at Chateau Ste Michelle's tasting room. Tastings last about 40 minutes, and are for 21 and over only. For more information and to buy tickets, visit the event page.

Lunchbox Laboratories Brunch

On Mother's Day, moms with tattoos eat free all day at Lunchbox Laboratories! If you don't have any tattoos, that's okay. They're giving out free fake tattoos for moms to don. For more information about the brunch and the Mother's Day event, go here.

The Hunt's Brunch at El Gaucho

El Guacho is serving up Mother's Day brunch from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. at the Hunt's Brunch at El Gaucho Bellevue. With a carving station, a mac and cheese bar, an omelet bar, a waffle and french toast station, and more, it's sure to please. For more info, visit the event page.

Mother's Day at Pearl

Pearl in Bellevue will be serving brunch from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. and dinner from 4-9 p.m. Brunch is a three-course affair, and both meals look fantastic. For more information, including how to make reservations and to see full menus, visit the event page.

Spa Specials
